Martin Learns Good News!

When Martin Luther read his books
Each day at lawyer school,
He learned that people had to pay
For breaking any rule.

He learned that God had many laws,
Just like the laws he read.
“If I obey God’s law,
Then God will love me,” Martin said.

God has laws
like the Ten Commandments.

“But God is perfect,” Martin thought.
“And God is strict and tough.
I can’t do what God asks me to.
I’m just not good enough.”

God does love
you, Martin!

He tried to think of ways to be
As good as he could be.
“If I become a monk, then maybe
God won’t punish me.”

A Reformation Sing-Along

God is like a castle, full of might.

God keeps me safe,
and God holds me tight.

When the devil bugs me,

God will fight.

God is near me

day and night.
