BLESSED ARE YOU

Matthew 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they shall receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

the poor in spirit

“Poor in spirit” means to be humble. Humility is the realization that all your gifts and blessings come from the grace of God. Humility brings an openness, allowing us to understand and to do the will of God.

those who mourn

We may mourn the loss of loved ones in our life. But Jesus is with us, especially at those times. Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to comfort us in our mourning.

the meek

The word meekness means having strength under control. That control is humility. Jesus said that if we wanted to be great in His kingdom then we would be servants. A willingness to serve is the definition of meekness.

those who hunger and thirst for righteousness

Those who hunger for righteousness are the ones that want to see justice and reconciliation in the world. They want to see people to live on good and just terms with each other and with God.

the merciful

To be merciful is to be compassionate and forgiving. In the parable of the unforgiving servant, Jesus asks the question as to whether or not the one who has received mercy should have shown mercy on his fellow servant.

the pure of heart

With hearts made clean from the messiness of sin, we will be able to see God in all his beauty, splendor and holiness.

the peacemakers

These are the followers of the Prince of Peace who reconciled men with God. They take seriously the ministry of reconciliation. They will be called the sons of God because they are acting and following the example of Jesus.

those persecuted for righteousness

There are parts of the world where people are being persecuted for Christ. For them, following Christ means suffering, rejection and even death. Jesus assures them of their heavenly reward.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward is great in heaven.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT

One of them, a lawyer,
asked Jesus a question to test him.
“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?”

And he said to him,

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment.

And a second is like it:
You shall love your neighbor
as yourself.

On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.”

Matthew 22:35-40

Good Friday

Be a Blessing

Spend some time praying in the presence of a cross. Remember, the story of Jesus did not end with his death.

Look for the Garden Tomb on the small detail map of Jerusalem.

Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.
