Martín Luther's Good News

On October 31, 1517, a man named Martin Luther stood by a church door in Wittenberg, Germany, with a large sheet of paper, a pocketful of nails and a hammer.

Martin wanted to share the Good News he'd read in Ephesians 2:8. "You have been saved by grace through faith," Martin read. He wanted everyone to know that God's love and forgiveness are not things we need to pay for in order to receive. God paid the price when he sent Jesus to die on the cross. Martin knew this Good News was true because he'd read it in the Bible. "I stand by it. God help me. Amen," said Martin.

Martin wrote a list of sentences about God's grace and free forgiveness. This list is called the 95 Theses. Martin posted his list on that church door.

People read Martin's list on their way to church. They had never heard the Good News of God's grace and forgiveness explained this way. They told their friends and neighbors about the list. It was passed around and shared. People used the newly invented printing press to make many copies. The Good News was spreading more quickly than ever before imagined. Soon Martin's list was given to the leaders of the church in Rome. It was being shared in churches and homes throughout Europe. And now, 500 years later, that Good News continues to spread to all corners of the world.

When Martin hammered the 95 Theses on the door of the Wittenberg church, great changes rang out through churches around the world. All Christians now celebrate the free gift of God's grace. People all over the world worship and read the Bible in their own languages. Music fills churches everywhere.

Throughout this year, remember the Good News that Martin learned. You are saved by God's good gift of grace! Through faith in Jesus, that gift, that saving grace, is yours!

Share the Good News of God's grace like Martin did. Say it gladly! Stand by it! It goes with you wherever you go.

Matthew 5:1-12

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them. He said:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

the poor in spirit

"Poor in spirit" means to be humble. Humility is the realization that all your gifts and blessings come from the grace of God. Humility brings an openness, allowing us to understand and to do the will of God.

those who mourn

We may mourn the loss of loved ones in our life. But Jesus is with us, especially at those times. Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to comfort us in our mourning.

the meek

The word meekness means having strength under control. That control is humility. Jesus said that if we wanted to be great in His kingdom then we would be servants. A willingness to serve is the definition of meekness.

those who hunger and thirst for righteousness

Those who hunger for righteousness are the ones that want to see justice and reconciliation in the world. They want to see people to live on good and just terms with each other and with God.

the merciful

To be merciful is to be compassionate and forgiving. In the parable of the unforgiving servant, Jesus asks the question as to whether or not the one who has received mercy should have shown mercy on his fellow servant.

the pure of heart

With hearts made clean from the messiness of sin, we will be able to see God in all his beauty, splendor and holiness.

the peacemakers

These are the followers of the Prince of Peace who reconciled men with God. They take seriously the ministry of reconciliation. They will be called the sons of God because they are acting and following the example of Jesus.

those persecuted for righteousness

There are parts of the world where people are being persecuted for Christ. For them, following Christ means suffering, rejection and even death. Jesus assures them of their heavenly reward.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.

SCIENCE

Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.
