God opposes the proud, but

Merciful Lord, I know that I must turn myself over to you each new day. Forgive me when I stray. Lead me on your righteous path eternally.

Lord, you knew our burden of sin and shame, and so you carried it to the cross for us. Help us place all our cares in your loving hands.

Matthew 16:24

If anyone would come after me,
let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Luke 24:44-48

From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."
Matthew 4:17

An Offering Box
for Lent

The holy season of Lent is an opportunity to recall the great truth of the Christian faith: Jesus saved us through his death on the cross. This cube provides Scripture verses and short prayers for the weeks of Lent on this side and for the Easter season on the other side. It is ideal for mealtime prayer but could be adapted in various ways. When Lent is completed and Easter begins, turning the cube inside out reminds us that Christ's dying and rising has turned the world inside out. Death no longer has a hold on us; we have been set free for new life in him. May this Lent and Easter renew you in the love of God made visible in Jesus.

The risen Lord has brought a new creation to the world: us. Through his dying and rising, we have been offered a share in his life, now and forever. Throughout the 50 days of the Easter season, the Scripture passages and prayers on this cube will remind us that faith in Christ is meant to change us in his image. With hearts open to his saving love, we will become the people he wants us to be.
