Advent Adventure!

Hello! And welcome to the Advent Adventure!

We're ready to lead the way through the season and stories of Advent, and we want you to be ready too, because you never know what you might see along the way.

We have exciting poems to read, fun games to play and a whole pile of pictures to color. So if you are prepared, together we'll head out on the Advent Adventure!

Zechariah's Surprise!

The old priest, Zechariah,
Was working one day
All alone in the temple.
His job was to pray.

When an angel appeared,
And it shouted, "Surprise!"
Zechariah stopped praying
And covered his eyes.

Then he started to shake,
And he fell to the floor.
Zechariah had not seen
An angel before.

“Please do not be afraid.
I have news that is fun,
Because you and your wife
Will soon have a new son.”

An Advent Sing-Along

Glow, glow, glow so bright,
Candle number one.
Happily, happily,
happily, happily,
God will send a Son.

Glow, glow, glow so bright,
Candle number two.
Hopefully, hopefully,
hopefully, hopefully,
God makes all things new.

Sing this song
when your parents
light the candles
on the Advent wreath!

The tune is "Row, row, row your boat!"

Glow, glow, glow so bright,
Candle number three.
Joyfully, joyfully,
joyfully, joyfully,
Jesus born for me.

Glow, glow, glow so bright,
Candle number four.
Merrily, merrily,
merrily, merrily,
Love forevermore.
