By His Wounds We Are Healed
Devotions for Lent
By Paul Scheidt

The innocent Son of God had no sins of his own for which he deserved to die, yet his enemies falsely accused him of violating every commandment of God. In these daily devotions for Lent by Paul Scheidt, we will see that it was our sin, our disobedience that Jesus bore in his body on the cross. The Lord laid on him "the iniquity of us all." Jesus suffered the penalty of death in our place, and "by his wounds we are healed."

Remember Me, O Lord
Daily Prayers for Lent
By Harry Edenfield

We join with the thief on the right on the cross beside Jesus in saying, "Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom," as we pray these prayers through the season of Lent. We ask the Lord to remember us in our sinfulness, in our weakness, in our doubt, in our struggles, in our rejoicing, in our trusting, in our tears and in our triumph through Christ. Along the way, learn how God's people were remembered by him as a foretaste of the remembrance our Savior provides.

For God So Loved the World
Devotions drawn from John 3:16
By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world. See matching coin on page 17.

EASTER DEVOTIONS
The Healing Marks of Jesus

Reflections on the Power of the Risen Christ

By Michael Hoy

In these 40 devotions for the Easter season (from Easter Sunday through Ascension Day) or for a season of grief after a loved one has died, author Michael Hoy focuses on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These marks are symbols of the redemptive power to bring wholeness and healing to the very real physical, emotional, spiritual and societal wounds present in our own lives as Easter people. These enduring marks of the crucified and risen Christ serve to encourage and strengthen us as we move forward in our faith, away from his death and the painful loss of loved ones and toward the perfect glory yet to be revealed in heaven.

Lent Is A-Maze-Ing!
 Devotions for Teens and Young Adults
 By Peter and David Mead

The season of Lent starts where most other journeys end: where X marks the spot. But this dark ashen cross that is placed on our foreheads is not the treasure we seek. Our great prize is the one our Savior made, a most difficult journey to claim for us. These brief daily devotions provide a simple roadmap for youth as they follow where Jesus leads. Our Savior skillfully navigates the pitfalls of sin and temptation that trip us up, and he brings us at last to his cross, and then, a-maze-ingly, on to the open tomb. Ages 13-20.

JOHN 3:16 DEVOTIONAL BOOKLET

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.

BY HIS WOUNDS WE ARE HEALED

A SERIES OF SERVICES FOR THE SEASON OF LENT

Our Lord and Savior suffered mortal wounds as punishment for the commandments broken by us. Yet, those very wounds are the means by which our sins are forgiven and we are made whole again. In this six-session worship series for the season of Lent, Rev. Michael Hoy leads us to reflect on how the wounds of sin affect relationships with God and with others and how, through graceful healing, our Lord restores us once more.

Jesus is accused of blasphemy and misusing God's name.

Week 1

The Wounds of Violating the Sabbath
Luke 6:6-11

John 19:12-16

Jesus is accused of dishonoring authority, calling himself a king.

Week 3

The Wounds of Murder • John 11:47-53
Jesus is accused of inspiring rebellion and the destruction of Israel; he is accused of being in league with Satan, who is "a murderer from the beginning."

Week 4

The Wounds of Adultery • Mark 2:13-17
Jesus is accused of associating with tax collectors and prostitutes.

Week 5

The Wounds of Stealing • Luke 23:1-5

Thy Will Be Done Holy Week Series

By Rev. Justin Rossow

"Not as I will, but as you will," Jesus prayed to his Father the night before he went to the cross for our salvation. And that is our prayer as well as we seek to do God's will in our lives, as we draw near to the observance of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection during Holy Week.

Each service focuses on a different aspect of God's will at work among us. Biblical characters are used as insightful reference points to guide us in following our Lord more nearly day by day. Monolog sermons.

BIBLE STUDIES

By His Wounds We Are Healed

The innocent Son of God had no sins of his own for which he deserved to die, yet his enemies falsely accused him of violating every commandment of God. Each week, we see that it was our sin, our disobedience that Jesus bore in his body on the cross. The Lord laid on him "the iniquity of us all." Jesus suffered the penalty of death in our place, and "by his wounds we are healed." The Leader's Guide includes answers, study notes and session directions.

Fix Your Eyes on Jesus

Focus this Lent on Jesus, trusting him to bring us forgiveness, peace and hope, because he—for us and for the sake of our salvation—fixed his eyes on the cross that awaited him. Jesus "for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12:2). He reigns as our eternal King, ever ready to help and defend us. The Leader's Guide includes answers, study notes and session directions.
