For God So Loved the World

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.

EASTER DEVOTIONS

The Healing Marks of Jesus

Reflections on the Power of the Risen Christ

By Michael Hoy

In these 40 devotions for the Easter season (from Easter Sunday through Ascension Day) or for a season of grief after a loved one has died, author Michael Hoy focuses on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These marks are symbols of the redemptive power to bring wholeness and healing to the very real physical, emotional, spiritual and societal wounds present in our own lives as Easter people. These enduring marks of the crucified and risen Christ serve to encourage and strengthen us as we move forward in our faith, away from his death and the painful loss of loved ones and toward the perfect glory yet to be revealed in heaven.

At the Crossroads, Holy Week Series

By Rev. Ted Schroeder

Many of those involved in the story of the Passion of Christ came to a crossroads and had to decide which way to go. Some chose well, some did not. These experiences help us know what to do and how to choose when faced with similar crossroads. Each service ends by revealing how Christ and his cross lead us to decide the path of God's will for us.

On Easter, turn the centerpiece over (FIGURE #4). The happy word is revealed at last. Celebrate our risen Savior!

My Hidden Alleluia!

An Activity Sheet for Lent and Easter

The tradition of hiding the Alleluia during Lent is back in a whole new way! Press out this sun-shaped Alleluia card at the beginning of Lent. Each week, families are asked to fold back one ray of the sunburst, hiding a letter of the word ALLELUIA. On the back of each letter is a simple activity families can do together each day of that week. As Holy Week arrives, the image of a tomb appears. But when Easter arrives and the rays are hidden, it's time to turn the sunburst over and reveal the bright Alleluia once more and forever!

Pentecost

PENTECOST

The SPIRIT'S WORK

The Jewish harvest festival of Pentecost was held 50 days after Passover. On that day, God told the people of Israel, "You shall hold a holy convocation. You shall not do any ordinary work" (Leviticus 23:27). On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit was poured out on the disciples. On that day, although the people did "ordinary work," the Holy Spirit carried out his extraordinary work.

What is the work of the Spirit?

To Convict
The promised Spirit would "convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment" (John 16:8). On Pentecost, Peter proclaimed Jesus' death and resurrection as the Holy Spirit's work of work, convicting the listeners. Those who by the Spirit's help, renewed the (Lunged Word) and about three thousand were baptized (Acts 2:41). The Holy Spirit is at work convicting those who hear the good news, for "no one can truly believe in Christ except the Holy Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

To Help
The Spirit is sometimes called the Advocate, Comforter, Helper, Counselor, and Spirit of Truth. He is the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Christ, and the Spirit of the Father, and we will give you another Helper to be with you forever (John 14:16). The Father and the Son, who have seen all things, had sent the Holy Spirit to you, who will be with you and abide in you forever (John 14:16-17). The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Christ, and the Spirit of the Father, and we will give you another Helper to be with you forever (John 14:16-17).

To Guide
Jesus said, "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he does not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears, he speaks, and his voice will not be heard, because he is the Spirit of truth" (John 16:13). The Spirit of truth will guide you into all the truth, for he does not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears, he speaks, and his voice will not be heard, because he is the Spirit of truth" (John 16:13).

To Glorify
Jesus said, "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will glorify me, for all that the Father has said to me is in me, and the Father who sent me, he has glorified me from the beginning" (John 16:14). The Spirit of truth will glorify me, for all that the Father has said to me is in me, and the Father who sent me, he has glorified me from the beginning" (John 16:14).

To Guarantee
All who have heard the Spirit's voice, before the great news of salvation, will see the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance (Ephesians 1:13-14). The Spirit of truth will guarantee our inheritance, for he is the Spirit of truth, who is the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Christ, and the Spirit of the Father, and we will give you another Helper to be with you forever (John 14:16-17).

Pentecost

This bulletin insert for Pentecost outlines the many and various ways in which the Holy Spirit is at work and active in the lives of God's faithful. The Spirit, we learn, is our helper, our convincer and our guide and is the one who glorifies and guarantees our eternal inheritance.

A Litany for PENTECOST

1. At his ascension, Jesus told his disciples to wait for the promise of the Father.

2. Spirit of God, you are the promised gift from the Father.

3. On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit was poured out on the disciples.

4. Spirit of God, fill our hearts with confidence and hope in Christ.

5. The disciples boldly proclaimed the mighty works of God in Christ Jesus.

6. Spirit of God, help us glorify Jesus in our words and in our lives.

7. The Spirit of truth came to guide Jesus' followers into all the truth.

8. Spirit of God, as we study the Word, guide us in the truth.

9. The Spirit came to declare the things that are to come.

10. Spirit of God, fill us with joy as we await our Savior's return.

"They were all filled with the Holy Spirit." Acts 2:4

Devotions for Holy Week

By Carol Geisler

It all happened in one week, the seven days we now call Holy Week. God's plan of salvation, set in motion so long ago, was accomplished. The Son of God fulfilled the purpose for which he had come. The Lamb of God was sacrificed for the sins of the world, for our sins. With these devotions, follow Jesus through the astonishing events that took place in one week, from Palms to Passion.

African Palm Crosses

These palms are handmade throughout the year by families in seven mud hut villages in Tanzania, East Africa. Sales help support community projects such as agricultural and vocational training, schools, water systems and emergency relief. These crosses are formed with a loop at the top, allowing them to be hung or worn on a cord.

Crafted from dry palm fronds. 4½" to 7"
