HELPING YOUR MINISTRY!

Creative Communications offers churches affordable resources that are rich in content. Every page, activity or greeting card delivers more than meets the eye. From a delightful graphic to a bonus children's activity, from a fresh perspective to family connections, the moments you provide parishioners in prayer, reflection and community ultimately connect them to scriptural foundations and the Gospel of Christ.

Affordable: NEW this season! Single-copy devotionals are priced at $1.49, reduced 25% from $1.99. Plus, you can mix-and-match devotional booklets to get best tier pricing to match the ages and groups on your list. And, as always, Creative Communications' goal is to maintain budget-friendly pricing.

Accessible: Easy to distribute in print or online, or through mail options. Our presentation of biblical content makes God's Word easy to include in daily devotion and easy to understand by new and seasoned Scripture readers alike.

Affirming: Our mission is to communicate the message of Christ, our Good News, in all we produce, from magnets to booklets, sharing the faith and uplifting the heart.

We are blessed to be your partner in ministry as you share the Gospel message with your worship community. Let us know how we can help!

With you on the way to the cross,

Lent invites us to “return to the Lord” with our “whole heart.” This daily devotional is designed for families to put their faith into practice. Written by popular author Amy Welborn, the booklet encourages parents and family to grow together during the important season of Lent.

48 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code WH2

See matching collection, page 11

The season of Lent is often described as a spiritual journey. This classic set of devotions by Creative Communications founder Larry Neeb (1939-2019) is designed to help us discover a deeper and richer relationship with God. The truth, of course, is that we can never find God unless he first finds us.

32 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code RD5

Sarah Thomas-Tracy invites and encourages readers to spend time reflecting with God's Word day by day. In just minutes a day, this booklet provides both Scripture (NRSV) and a daily prayer, calling believers to abandon sin and “Come to the Light.”

48 pages • 3 7/8" x 5 1/2" • Code CM1

The season of Lent provides the perfect time for families to reflect from where true fulfillment and peace comes. Throughout the season, as throughout our lives, it is Christ who works to fill the empty vessels of our hearts and we discover “...we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us” (2 Corinthians 4:7).

48 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code TR8

In these 40 devotions for the Easter season (from Easter Sunday through Ascension Day) or for a season of grief after a loved one has died, author Michael Hoy focuses on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These enduring marks of the crucified and risen Christ serve to encourage and strengthen us.

32 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code HLJ

This prayer booklet for Lent gives us the opportunity to bow our hearts in prayer to our Lord daily during this sacred season. Each week prayers are focused on a different way in which we can bow our hearts: sacrificially, humbly, gratefully, confidently, joyfully, reverently and faithfully. With each prayer, our hearts grow closer to Christ and his cross.

a Come, Follow Me!

Throughout Lent, or any time of year, learn about Jesus' call to follow him and to love one another. The hidden flaps lift to reveal an image of a disciple in action and a rhyming poem and Bible reference. As Easter arrives, Jesus also appears, standing in front of the open tomb, encouraging us to "Make disciples of all people!" Ages 5-12.

9¼" x 12½" • Code DGX

b My Holy Week Journey Follow Jesus on his journey through Jerusalem during Holy Week. Children love to open windows which reveal colorful scenes of Jesus' journey. Each day leads him closer to the cross and ultimately to the open tomb of Easter Day. Perfect for a morning and evening prayer activity as two windows per day are opened to reveal Jesus' great gift of love. Ages 5-12.

9¼" x 12½" • Code DGE

c Lift High the Cross Follow Jesus on his journey to the cross this Holy Week with this unique pop-up window calendar. On Palm Sunday, lay this calendar on a table or countertop. Each day of the week, lift up a pair of numbered windows. What will pop up? A humble donkey? Our Lord praying in the garden? A soldier by the cross? When Easter arrives, an entire resurrection scene will appear where there once was an empty road, a wonderful reminder that Jesus calls us to take up our cross and follow him, through Holy Week and every day of our lives. Ages 5-12.

9¼" x 12½" • Code DGL

d From Ascension to Pentecost Celebrate discipleship and continue the Easter blessing through Pentecost Sunday. The countdown begins on Ascension Day as a large window is opened to reveal our ascending Lord. Each day after, lift up a flap and learn about the first disciples and the gifts and messages they shared. Finally, on Pentecost, the Spirit's flame is revealed, a reminder that our hearts are burning with the desire to share the good news of Jesus' love and forgiveness. As the Pentecost season starts, we rise up and shine his light to the world. Ages 5-12.

9¼" x 12½" • Code DGB

e Fruit of the Spirit Learn about the Holy Spirit's gifts in the days leading up to Pentecost with this fun and fruit-filled (Fruit of the Spirit, that is) calendar for families. A Bible verse and colorful picture are revealed each day, bringing light to the meaning and significance of all of the Holy Spirit's gifts. Ages 5-12.

Lent is a season when we take a look at our lives in view of God's mercy toward us in the sacrifice of his Son for us on the cross. We, in turn, are called by God, especially during this time of repentance and reflection, to be living sacrifices for him, displaying our devotion to him in word and deed. Jesus helps us to see the richness of God's mercy in his life, death and resurrection. The services in this worship series for Lent by theology professor David Peter focus our eyes of faith on the meaning behind God's mercy made manifest in Christ.

Ash Wednesday

Mercy in Ashes • Joel 2:13

As we are marked with ashes on this day, a reminder to us of our sins, we are reminded, too, of the mercy of our God who lifts us from our ashes to new life in Christ.

Week 1

Mercy in Temptation • 1 Corinthians 10:13

In the midst of temptation, our merciful God provides us with a way out through his Son, who was tempted just as we are, yet without sin.

Week 2

Mercy in Suffering • 1 Peter 2:23

No life is without suffering, but our sufferings are not worth comparing to the glory to be revealed to us in Jesus by God's great mercy.

Week 3

Mercy in Betrayal • 1 Peter 3:11

Though we may turn away from our God again and again, our Lord continues to call us back into his merciful arms for Jesus' sake.

Week 4

Mercy in Relationships • Ephesians 4:32

Within the communities God has placed us, we are given the grace to treat one another as Christ has cared for us in his love and mercy.

Week 5

Mercy in Service • Hebrews 6:10

In response to God's kindness to us in Jesus, we serve in mercy the needs of those around us by Christ's example.

Take a "detective's look" at the story of Jesus' resurrection. Over the course of this series, we will take an in-depth look at the details surrounding the resurrection. Each week focuses on a different fact related to the story of Jesus' resurrection, addressed in sermons that include dramas involving those who were present at the time of the first Easter and faithful believers. Weekly themes are the Martyrs, the Scriptures, the Trial, the Women, the Men and the Empty Tomb. 6 Week Series.

Digital Worship Kits

RENEWED CLASSICS!

Now available, bestselling past worship kits. Pulled from the Creative archive, these Lenten worship services include timeless messages of hope and salvation.

Perfect for the hybrid church, both in-person or online services, these kits include a complete order of service, full scripts of sermons (as monologues or dialogues), children's sermons, hymn suggestions and more!

Celebrate Lent in a familiar way with these throwback titles!

This Lent worship series asks, "What is your role in the suffering and death of Christ?" Week by week, this question is addressed— through homilies and monologs by biblical characters who actually did have a hand in the crucifixion of Christ. Characters include Adam (or Eve), Nicodemus, Judas, Barabbas, Pilate, the father of the Thief on the Right, Peter, the Centurion, and Mary Magdalene. Homilies, scripts for the monologs, prayers, Scripture readings, music and children's sermons are included.

Services in this series focus attention on: • the feet of Christ • the eyes of Christ • the hands of Christ • the mouth of Christ • the ears of Christ • the heart of Christ. Homilies on these topics, rich in biblical references, are scripted in such a way that they may be offered by two persons as dialog sermons—or by a single preacher.

The congregation is led on a biblically chronological journey to "mountaintop experiences" which all focus on the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Mount Moriah, Mount Sinai, Mount Carmel, Mount Zion, Mount Olivet and Mount Calvary are highlighted. Services begin with the "Psalms of Ascent." Dramatic homilies involve a narrator and as many as four other readers.

Digital download
Code HL1DD • $39.99

Each week in this Lenten series, worshippers will be led by a typical tour guide on an imaginary visit to the Holy City the week that Jesus died. The "stops" each week are The Temple, Passover, The Mount of Olives, The Palace of the High Priest, The Fortress of Antonio, and Skull Hill. Scripts for the dramas include multiple readers, homilies, hymns, prayers and Scripture readings.

Digital Download
Code JP3DD • $39.99

This six-part Lenten worship series asks, "Did various people who were involved in our Lord's Passion ever have an opportunity to talk with one another about it?" People such as Malchus and Mark, Barabbas and Caiaphas, Pilate and his wife, Simon of Cyrene and the centurion, Mary and John, and the two thieves. If you could have listened to their conversations, what might you have Overheard? Designed to be read from the balcony or back of the church.

The Cross and Me

This coordinated collection of Lent products teaches and delights. Discover together as a family how following in our Savior's footsteps is reflected in the small acts of love and kindness we do throughout Lent and every day of our lives.

How to use these pieces together:

Send the Message Home

Children's Devotional Teach children the real meaning of "Take up your cross and follow me" with the true-to-life situational stories and Scriptural reflections in The Cross and Me. Daily Lenten lessons from Jesus' parables and sermons are given modern-day treatment through scenarios that children encounter each day. As followers of Christ, our actions and reactions to those events should be reflections of the fact that we are followers of Christ throughout Lent and always. Ages 6-10.

Teach the Message in Person

Children's Messages These seven children's sermons for the six weeks of Lent and Easter Sunday invite us to look closely at the lessons Jesus taught his followers and each of us throughout his ministry and as he journeyed toward the cross. Treasured parables become even more meaningful when they are applied to the real-life relationships and situations children experience at home and at school. All of these lessons draw us closer to Christ as we take up our own crosses and follow. Reproducible coloring pages and activity sheets are included with these simple-to-do children's messages for classrooms or worship settings.

My Hidden Alleluia!

An Activity Sheet for Lent and Easter

The tradition of hiding the Alleluia during Lent is back in a whole new way! Press out this sun-shaped Alleluia card at the beginning of Lent. Each week, families are asked to fold back one ray of the sunburst, hiding a letter of the word ALLELUIA. On the back of each letter is a simple activity families can do together each day of that week. As Holy Week arrives, the image of a tomb appears. But when Easter arrives and the rays are hidden, it's time to turn the sunburst over and reveal the bright Alleluia once more and forever!

John 3:16 Devotional Booklet

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.

Palm Sunday

Devotions for Holy Week It all happened in one week, the seven days we now call Holy Week. God's plan of salvation, set in motion so long ago, was accomplished. The Son of God fulfilled the purpose for which he had come. The Lamb of God was sacrificed for the sins of the world, for our sins. With these devotions, follow Jesus through the astonishing events that took place in one week, from Palms to Passion.

backpack blessings

Backpack Blessing Event Kit

Here is a Blessing of the Backpacks you can do in church at the start of the school year to remind students that God blesses them each day of their lives as they reach out in faith as a blessing to others. Each set of Backpack Blessings serves 10 children with 10 luggage tags for each child (used to attach to his/her backpack) and 10 sets of tear-off notes for parents to put in their child's backpack or lunch box. Every Backpack Blessings order includes instructions on coordinating and presenting this 10-minute event, a script to use to bless the backpacks, and a themed children's sermon that encourages us to "serve the Lord with gladness!" as heard in Psalm 100:2.

In View of God's Mercy
A 6-Session Bible Study for Lent
By Carol Geisler

In this Bible study for Lent, participants view the life, death and resurrection of Christ through the lens of God's mercy. Study and discussion questions, prayers and reflections help to remind us that we, in turn, are called to be living sacrifices for God, displaying our devotion to him in word and deed. The large-format Leader's Guide includes all answers, helpful notes and session directions.
