

Who Will Roll the Stone?

Stories & Activities for Lent

Stone Tablets

On a mountain very tall,
Moses met with God alone.
God gave Moses ten good laws
on two tablets made of stone.
God wants us all to obey.
These commandments
show the way!

*Jesus tells us the Greatest Commandment.
Fill in the blanks to learn what Jesus said.*

heart • mind • Jesus
Love • soul

God gave you the gift of life.
God gives you the gift of love.
What can you give in return?
Worship only God above!
Love the Lord with all your heart.
That's the perfect way to start.

How many words can you make from the letters in commandment?

COMMANDMENT

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

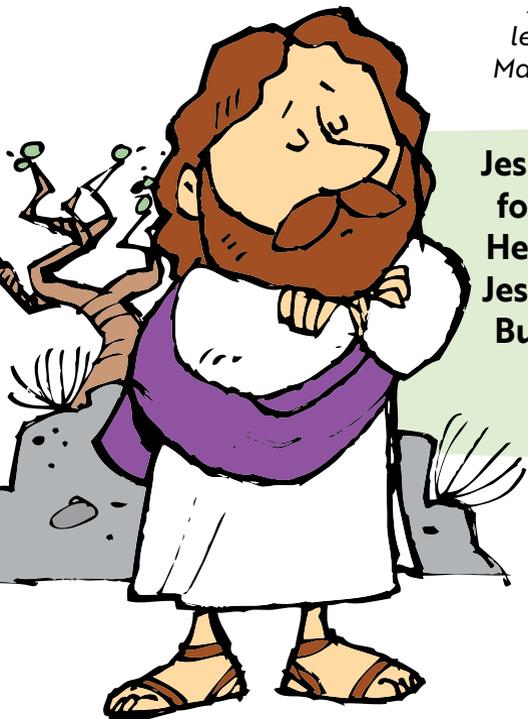

Jesus gives a new command,
something even you can do!
"Love each person that you meet.
Love because God first loved you!"
Love's the rule! So have some fun loving God and everyone!

Stones for Bread?

A Lenten lesson from Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus journeyed in the desert forty nights and forty days. He did not bring food to eat. Jesus went to think and pray. But our Lord was not alone. Someone tempted him with stones.

Which two loaves are a match?

Which two stones are exactly the same?

Jesus saw a sneaky someone,
and that sneaky someone said,
"If you are the Son of God, then you can turn this stone to bread."
"No," said Jesus. "No, indeed.
God's good Word is all I need."

Solid as a Rock

Build your life
on Jesus' Word.
That's the wisest
thing to do.
He will never fail or crumble.
Jesus will be there for you.

Every day and all occasions, Jesus is your firm foundation.
