Silent Night Holy Night

The lullaby tune and lyrics of Silent Night help to remind us that God's gift of salvation was delivered to us in the form of a tiny baby: Christ the Savior is born!

Use the stickers in this book, along with the accompanying activity sheet, to count the days of December until the celebration of Jesus' birth. As the night sky over the hills of Bethlehem fills with stars, you will be ready to welcome the true Light of the World who brings salvation, goodwill and heavenly peace to all.

*Silent Night. Holy Night.
Up above, stars shine bright.
In a stable far below
rests a baby you may know:
Baby Jesus, asleep.
Baby Jesus, asleep.*

December 1

IN the DARK • Isaiah 9:2

The people waited through the years for God's salvation to appear.

Like someone lost out in night,
they walked through life without God's Light.

But as God promised, night will end,
and they will walk in Light again!

December 2

LIGHT! • John 1:9

In the beginning, God said, "Light!"

And with that Word, the world shines bright.

It shines God's glory all about.

The darkness cannot put it out.

"Now light will shine right here! It's true!"

That is God's Word for me and you.

*Silent Night. Holy Night.
Manger bed—what a sight.
Mary wraps him soft and warm.
Joseph keeps him safe from harm.
There to guard and to keep.
There to guard and to keep.*

December 3

MARY • Luke 1:26-28

One day, an angel flew to see a woman down in Galilee.

Her name is Mary. (Had you guessed?)

“Greetings to you! God calls you blessed!

Don’t be afraid. God sends his love and light to you from heaven above.”

December 4

SON of GOD • Luke 1:30-33

Dear Mary heard the news that day that God’s own Son was on the way.

And she would be the baby’s mother,
and she’d care for him like no other.

Our God, who lives in heaven’s height,
will come to us one holy night!

December 5

A CHILD • Isaiah 9:6

Isaiah made a prophecy.

“A child will come to you and me!

He’s wonderful and full of might.

He rules all day and every night
from now until eternity!”

That’s someone I can’t wait to see!

December 6

JOSEPH • Matthew 1:18-25

One silent night, as Joseph dozed,
an angel came and spoke to Joe.

“Don’t be afraid to marry Mary.

Her son will be extraordinary!”

God comes to us each day to dwell.

This child is our Immanuel!

*Silent Night. Holy Night.
Baby wakes. Eyes shine bright.
Cows and donkeys look to see
Jesus lying quietly.*

*Hush, my baby, don't weep.
Hush, my baby, don't weep.*

December 7

DONKEY • Zechariah 9:9

A king will come to us today
in quite an unexpected way.
He'll humbly ride a donkey 'round.
Some say that Mary rode to town upon a donkey. If that's true, it's just the thing our king would do!

December 8

BETHLEHEM • Luke 2:1-5

Dear Joseph went to Bethlehem,
and Mary traveled there with him.
But it was not a silent night.
But there was not one room in sight!
The streets were full. The inn said, "No!"
Where could this weary family go?

December 9

MAKE ROOM • Luke 2:6-7

They found a barn along the way,
a place where cows and horses stay.
It was the only room to spare.
(It could not have been quiet there.)
But it was safe and soft and warm.
And in that place, her child was born.

December 10

GREEN PASTURES • Psalm 23:1-4

They used a manger for a bed.
That is a box where sheep are fed.
I've thought about it quite a lot,
and I think it's the perfect spot.
For God, our shepherd, wants to feed us all the grace we'll ever need.
