Lenten Devotions
Inspiration from Henri J. M. Nouwen • Christopher Klofft

Each Lent, we are called to prayerfully consider the love that Jesus has for each one of us, to receive that love, to share it and to demonstrate it. A spiritual icon of the twentieth century, Henri Nouwen wrote about that love for decades and his writings continue to captivate millions. In these pages, excerpts of his writings are accompanied by Scripture passages and original reflections written by Creative Communications author Christopher Klofft.

Treasure in Jars of Clay
Family Devotions and Activities for Lent
By Steve and Sue Givens

The season of Lent provides the perfect time for families to reflect from where true fulfillment and peace comes. Throughout the season, as throughout our lives, it is Christ who works to fill the empty vessels of our hearts and we discover “...we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us’ (2 Corinthians 4:7). That power, that forgiving love, is ours to share.

Jesus told his disciples (and us), “Take up your cross, and follow me.” In these daily devotions for Lent, author David Boyd explores what it means for us to take up our cross for Christ and outlines various ways in which this “cross carrying” happens in our lives. As Christ’s disciples, we follow in his footsteps during the days of Lent on the way to his ultimate sacrifice on the cross of Calvary.

Our lives should be full of hope, even in our later years. The daily devotions in this LARGE PRINT special edition highlight the message and themes found in Creative’s highly popular daily devotional for older adult Christians living life to the fullest. The reflections help seniors ponder Christ’s journey to the cross and empty tomb for their salvation and encourage them to faithfully share with younger generations the reason for the hope they have in the crucified and risen Savior.

By His Wounds We Are Healed

Devotions for Lent

By Paul Scheidt

The innocent Son of God had no sins of his own for which he deserved to die, yet his enemies falsely accused him of violating every commandment of God. In these daily devotions for Lent by Paul Scheidt, we will see that it was our sin, our disobedience that Jesus bore in his body on the cross. The Lord laid on him “the iniquity of us all.” Jesus suffered the penalty of death in our place, and “by his wounds we are healed.”

Lent Is A-Maze-Ing!
Devotions for Teens and Young Adults
By Peter and David Mead
The season of Lent starts where most other journeys end: where X marks the spot. But this dark ashen cross that is placed on our foreheads is not the treasure we seek. Our great prize is the one our Savior made, a most difficult journey to claim for us. These brief daily devotions provide a simple roadmap for youth as they follow where Jesus leads. Our Savior skillfully navigates the pitfalls of sin and temptation that trip us up, and he brings us at last to his cross, and then, a-maze-ingly, on to the open tomb. Ages 13-20.

EASTER DEVOTIONS
The Healing Marks of Jesus
Reflections on the Power of the Risen Christ
By Michael Hoy
These 40 devotions focus on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These marks are symbols of the redemptive power to bring wholeness and healing to the very real physical, emotional, spiritual and societal wounds present in our own lives. As Easter people, we are encouraged and strengthened by these enduring marks. Use for Easter reflections or for a season of grief after a loved one has died.

Remember Me, O Lord
Daily Prayers for Lent
By Harry Edenfield

We join with the thief on the right on the cross beside Jesus in saying, “Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom,” as we pray these prayers through the season of Lent. We ask the Lord to remember us in our sinfulness, in our weakness, in our doubt, in our struggles, in our rejoicing, in our trusting, in our tears and in our triumph through Christ. Along the way, learn how God’s people were remembered by him as a foretaste of the remembrance our Savior provides.

My Hidden Alleluia!

An Activity Sheet for Lent and Easter

The tradition of hiding the Alleluia during Lent is back in a whole new way! Press out this sun-shaped Alleluia card at the beginning of Lent. Each week, families are asked to fold back one ray of the sunburst, hiding a letter of the word ALLELUIA. On the back of each letter is a simple activity families can do together each day of that week. As Holy Week arrives, the image of a tomb appears. But when Easter arrives and the rays are hidden, it’s time to turn the sunburst over and reveal the bright Alleluia once more and forever!

From Palms to Passion
Devotions for Holy Week
By Carol Geisler

It all happened in one week, the seven days we now call Holy Week. God’s plan of salvation, set in motion so long ago, was accomplished. The Son of God fulfilled the purpose for which he had come. The Lamb of God was sacrificed for the sins of the world, for our sins. With these devotions, follow Jesus through the astonishing events that took place in one week, from Palms to Passion.

Paper • 16 pages • 5⅜” x 8⅜”

Handmade palms, by families in seven mud hut villages in Tanzania, support their community with agricultural and vocational training, schools, water systems and emergency relief. These crosses are formed with a loop at the top, allowing them to be hung or worn on a cord. Crafted from dry palm fronds • 4½” to 7”

BY HIS WOUNDS
WE ARE HEALED
A SERIES OF SERVICES
FOR THE SEASON OF LENT

Our Lord and Savior suffered mortal wounds as punishment for the commandments broken by us. Yet, those very wounds are the means by which our sins our forgiven and we are made whole again. In this six-session worship series for the season of Lent, Rev. Michael Hoy leads us to reflect on how the wounds of sin affect relationships with God and with others and how, through graceful healing, our Lord restores us once more.

- Ash Wednesday – The Wounds of Blasphemy • John 10:31-39 • Jesus is accused of blasphemy and misusing God’s name.

- Week 1 – The Wounds of Violating the Sabbath • Luke 6:6-11 • Jesus is accused of violating the Sabbath.

- Week 2 – The Wounds of Dishonoring Authority • John 19:12-16 • Jesus is accused of dishonoring authority, calling himself a king.

- Week 3 – The Wounds of Murder • John 11:47-53 • Jesus is accused of inspiring rebellion and the destruction of Israel; he is accused of being in league with Satan, who is “a murderer from the beginning.”

- Week 4 – The Wounds of Adultery • Mark 2:13-17 • Jesus is accused of associating with tax collectors and prostitutes.

- Week 5 – The Wounds of Stealing • Luke 23:1-5 • Jesus is accused of forbidding the paying of taxes.

Fix Your Eyes on Jesus
Focus this Lent on Jesus, trusting him to bring us forgiveness, peace and hope, because he—for us and for the sake of our salvation—fixed his eyes on the cross that awaited him. Jesus "for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12:2). He reigns as our eternal King, ever ready to help and defend us. The Leader’s Guide includes answers, study notes and session directions.

By His Wounds We Are Healed
The innocent Son of God had no sins of his own for which he deserved to die, yet his enemies falsely accused him of violating every commandment of God. Each week, we see that it was our sin, our disobedience that Jesus bore in his body on the cross. The Lord laid on him “the iniquity of us all.” Jesus suffered the penalty of death in our place, and “by his wounds we are healed.” The Leader’s Guide includes answers, study notes and session directions.
